WELCOME TO HUMANITIES

Now that you have chosen to study at McMaster, you are probably wondering what to do next - in particular, how to choose your courses.

Your first-year course selection is based on the programs (or majors) you are interested in for Level 2. All of our Level 2 programs have first-year course requirements summarized on the next page. We have provided you with a worksheet to help you plan your Level 1 courses. A full course load includes 30 units, with 15 units per term. Each course is typically worth 3 units (half year) or 6 units (full year).

You are required to take one 3-unit foundational Humanities course, HUMAN 1W3. You are also required to take 12 units from “Course List 1” – these courses qualify you for a Level 2 program. The remaining 15 units can be additional courses from the course list, electives from the Faculty of Humanities, or electives from other Faculties at McMaster.

We have provided you with a worksheet inside this brochure to help you plan your courses. As always, if you have any questions, we encourage you to speak with an academic advisor.

Understanding Course Codes

The level of the course (1AA3) How many units this course is worth

Prerequisite: a requirement to be fulfilled before registration in a course is permitted. This is usually the successful completion of another course.

Co-requisite: a course which must be taken at the same time as your desired course.

Anti-requisite: an anti-requisite course will be listed if your desired course overlaps substantially with another one, and indicates that you cannot take both.
